Lockyer Valley declaration finalises the 2016 Local Government Quadrennial Elections

The Electoral Commission of Queensland has declared the results of the postponed 2016 Lockyer Valley Regional Councillor elections. A total of twenty candidate nominations were received with six Councillors successfully elected. Results for both the Mayoral and Councillor elections for the Lockyer Valley Regional Council have now been declared and the elections finalised.

Lockyer Valley Regional Council Elections was the last of the 77 local council areas to be declared due to its postponement. The Commission has now declared and finalised all results for the 2016 Local Government Quadrennial Elections.

Electoral Commissioner, Mr. Walter van der Merwe said: "I am proud to announce that with the declaration of results for Lockyer Valley Regional Council the Commission has successfully finalised the 2016 Local Government Quadrennial Elections."

Results for each of the 77 council areas within the Local Government Quadrennial Elections are available on the Commission's website at www.ecq.qld.gov.au
