1.0 PARTY NAME AND CONSTITUTIONAL STANDING

1.1 This is the Constitution for the Pauline Hanson’s One Nation Queensland, “the Party”.

1.2 The Pauline Hanson’s One Nation Queensland is a subsidiary body of Pauline Hanson’s One Nation Political Party (“the National Body”).

1.2.1 As a subsidiary body, the Party is subject to the National Body rules outlined in the National Constitution as they apply to the Party.

1.3 If any provision or provisions of this constitution are deemed invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining provisions of this document shall remain in full force and effect and this document shall be deemed to have been amended to remove such invalid provision or provisions.

2.0 OBJECTIVES OF THE PARTY

2.1 To achieve the objectives of Pauline Hanson’s One Nation Political Party as described by the National Constitution.

2.2 The promotion of endorsed candidates for election to the Queensland Legislative Assembly.

2.3 To drive membership and fundraising activities in support of the Party’s objectives.

3.0 THE STATE EXECUTIVE

The structure of the Party under this new Constitution, is to manage it on the following principles:

3.1 The State Executive is the supreme rule, policy and decision making body of the Party and is empowered, subject to any contrary provision contained in this Constitution, to manage and make decision in relation to all affairs of the Party.

3.2 The State Executive must not consist of less than four members.

3.3 At a minimum, the positions of:

3.3.1 State President
3.3.2 State Director
3.3.3 State Treasurer

3.3.4 State Secretary

shall exist.

3.4 The State President and State Director shall each have the responsibilities of:

3.4.1 Undertaking actions as necessary to drive and manage the Party’s growth in the State.

3.5 The State Treasurer shall have the responsibilities of:

3.5.1 Managing and maintaining absolute accuracy in regard to the Party’s financial records;

3.5.2 Ensuring the Party complies with any financial obligations imposed upon it by law or the National Body;

3.5.3 Liaising with, and reporting to, the National Treasurer on the financial activities of the Party.

3.6 The State Secretary shall have the responsibilities of:

3.6.1 Managing the day to day official correspondence of the Party;

3.6.2 Recording the minutes of State Executive meetings;

3.6.3 Ensuring that any required records in relation to the functioning of the Party are kept in an orderly and accurate manner.

3.7 The State Executive may meet as often as it deems necessary but must meet at least bi-monthly.

3.7.1 A meeting may take place in person, via teleconference, conference call or any other electronic or physical methods or combination of methods whereby the State Executive members in attendance may all be heard and which the State Executive believes will not compromise the confidentiality of the meeting.

3.7.2 A quorum of the State Executive is achieved when 75% or greater of the members of the State Executive are in attendance.

3.7.3 A simple majority shall review, discuss and then decide on all matters before the State Executive for consideration at that time.

3.7.3.1 The State Executive has the option to defer deciding on any matter presented at a meeting.
3.8 The State Executive shall recognise the National Executive as the overriding body of the Party.

3.8.1 This means that the National Executive shall, if necessary, have the power to intervene or overrule decisions of the State Executive for the protection of the Party and National Body.

3.8.2 The State Executive will be obliged to follow all instructions from the National Executive in relation to carrying out the business of the Party.

3.9 Members may resign from the State Executive by providing written notice to the State Secretary.

3.10 Members may be appointed to the State Executive on:

- nominees for appointment being submitted to the National Executive for approval; and
- a majority vote by the existing State Executive on the National Executive approved nominees.

3.10.1 Notice of the appointment of new members to the State Executive must be forwarded to the National Executive immediately on the member’s appointment.

3.10.2 Members may also be removed from the State Executive by a decision of the majority of the State Executive with the consent of the National Executive.
