

Application for determination that a person or another entity is not a prohibited donor

ELECTORAL ACT 1992 - SECTION 277
LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTORAL ACT 2011 - SECTION 113D

Pursuant to provisions in the Electoral Act 1992 and Local Government Electoral Act 2011 it is an offence for a prohibited donor to make a political donation. It is also an offence to accept a political donation from a prohibited donor. This form must be used by a person that seeks a determination by the Electoral Commissioner that the person, or another entity, is not a prohibited donor.

A prohibited donor is defined under Part 11 Election funding and financial disclosure, Division 8 Rules about particular gifts and loans, Subdivision 4 Political donations from property developers, to mean a property developer; or an industry representative organisation, a majority of whose members are property developers.

A political donation is a gift or loan (other than from a financial institution) for the benefit of (1) a political party; (2) an elected official; (3) a candidate in an election or (4) a third party entity to make a gift to any of the groups in (1) to (3) or incur its own electoral expenditure.

Please refer to Part F – Definitions for further details on the meaning of terms used in this application form.

You must complete all fields and answer all the questions in this form. Where not applicable, write N/A.

The Information Privacy Act 2009 protects the personal information you submit. Consideration of your application may involve consultation and if so, details may be disclosed to third parties. Your information will not be otherwise disclosed outside the Electoral Commission of Queensland unless required or authorised by law.

Information for applicants

To make a determination the Electoral Commissioner (or delegate) relies on an applicant to fully complete the application form. The applicant must attach enough relevant information to satisfy the Electoral Commissioner that a determination should be made.

- ECQ staff may contact the applicant (or the subject of the application if different) to request further or clarifying information in connection with the application after the application has been lodged with ECQ.
- ECQ staff may liaise directly with government agencies who administer Queensland's planning regime and local government councils to seek relevant information to assist in their assessment of an application.
- ECQ is required by law to maintain a public register of determinations and revocations of determinations (available on ECQ's website). Personal information, such as a subject's name and/or company, may be included on the public register.
- A determination is in force for 12 months after it is made by the Electoral Commissioner (or delegate) but can be revoked by the Electoral Commissioner (or delegate) at any time by notice in writing to the applicant and relevant entity, if the entity was not the applicant.
- ECQ determinations are conclusively presumed to be correct in favour of a person for the purposes of a political donation that the person makes or accepts while the determination is in force (even if a determination is subsequently revoked or set aside).
- ECQ determinations are not presumed to have effect in favour of a person who makes or accepts a political donation knowing the information provided to ECQ to enable the making of the determination was false or misleading in a material particular.
- Applications are to be sent to Electoral Commission of Queensland, GPO Box 1393, Brisbane QLD 4001 or emailed to pds@ecq.qld.gov.au.

Applicant declaration

WARNING: A person who provides information to ECQ in connection with an application for a determination by the Electoral Commissioner (or delegate) knowing that the information is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence. The maximum penalty for the information offence is 400 penalty units ($53,380 as at 1 July 2019) or 2 years imprisonment.

I,
