Foreword

The twenty-ninth elections for the Brisbane City Council were held on Saturday, 28 April 2012 for the purpose of electing a Lord Mayor and Councillors for the City of Brisbane. These elections were conducted under the Local Government Elections Act 2011.

The conduct of the elections was managed by the full-time staff of the ECQ, with assistance from Returning officers specially appointed for each of the city's 26 wards. Planning for the event was a significant and challenging task, especially given that for the first time the ECQ was responsible for the conduct of all local government elections at the same time under the new legislation.

The elections were conducted successfully, in accordance with all required timeframes. I wish to record my thanks to the staff of the Commission, Returning Officers and polling officials for a job well done. The assistance provided by Council officers was also important in the successful conduct of these elections and is greatly appreciated.
