

Appointment of an agent for a registered political party

A registered political party MUST appoint an agent. The agent is responsible for the party's election funding and financial disclosure obligations under both the Electoral Act 1992 and the Local Government Electoral Act 2011. Only one agent can be appointed at a time.

During any period where no agent is appointed, each member of the executive committee of the registered political party becomes accountable for the obligations and responsibilities of the agent until such time as a new agent is appointed.

The name of a registered political party's agent will be entered into the ECQ's Register of Agents and Register of Political Parties. Unless otherwise indicated, all information in this form will be published for public inspection on the ECQ's website.

Lodgement timeframe

An agent must be appointed when a political party is first registered.

If a person's appointment as the agent of a political party ends, a new agent must be appointed within 28 days.
