Foreword

The forty-seventh general election held on Saturday 19 September 1992, was a landmark event in Queensland's electoral history.

Following recommendations made in the Fitzgerald Report (1989), the Electoral and Administrative Review Commission (EARC) was established in March 1990 to reform the State's electoral system and to restore public confidence in the honesty, impartiality and efficiency of the State's electoral processes.

The reports prepared by EARC and the Parliamentary Committee for Electoral and Administrative Review, together with the resolutions of Parliament and resulting legislation, instituted wide-ranging structural, procedural and administrative reforms to the State's electoral system. These reforms were collectively put to the test for the first time on the 19 September 1992 with significant success.

This was the first election conducted by the new independent electoral authority, the Electoral Commission Queensland; the first conducted under new boundaries established by EARC in 1991; the first using the new Commonwealth-State joint roll; and the first poll in fifty years conducted under optional preferential voting (OPV).

The election was the first conducted under the new act, The Electoral Act 1992, which provided, in addition, for the registration of political parties and the addition of party affiliations on ballot papers, remote area mobile polling, streamlined procedures for the conduct of polling including a new system of declaration voting, and the introduction of computerised scanning, of certified lists of voters.

Faced with the task of implementing these extensive reforms, and ensuring the highest standards of service to the public on election day, the staff of the Commission including eighty-nine Returning Officers and some 7,000 polling officials employed on the day, are to be congratulated on a job exceedingly well done. I wish to record my personal thanks and appreciation to all staff for their dedication to the task.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 In accordance with its statutory responsibility to promote public awareness of electoral matters, the Electoral Commission has adopted a new and improved format for the reporting and presentation of election statistics.
- 1.2 Accordingly, this monograph includes background information and an explanatory overview of the election together with a map illustrating the election results and additional summary tables of voting responses.
- 1.3 In particular, in accordance with s 124 of the Electoral Act 1992, the results of preference counts are shown for all districts where a distribution of preferences was possible if not essential to determine the election result.
- 1.4 Both essential and non-essential preferential counts are continued until only two candidates remain in the count thus yielding two party preferred statistics at an electoral district level.
- 1.5 These additional data and details are intended to provide a more comprehensive account of polling and a more useful documentary record of Queensland's forty-seventh general election.

2. The Legislative Assembly

- 2.1 Queensland has the distinction of having the only unicameral (single house) parliament in Australia. The Legislative Assembly has functioned as the single chamber of the Queensland Legislature since 4 July 1922, and has grown from 26 members in 1860 to 89 MLAs in 1992, each representing a single electoral district.
- 2.2 The framework of the new electoral system for the Queensland Legislative Assembly is contained primarily in two acts of Parliament. First, the Electoral Districts Act 1991 (repealed by the Electoral Act 1992), provided for the abolition of the previous zonal system of representation and established the rules for the distribution of boundaries undertaken by EARC in 1991.
- 2.3 Second, the Electoral Act 1992 establishes the guidelines for future redistributions and defines the administrative procedures for the conduct of general elections and by-elections to fill vacancies in the Legislative Assembly.
- 2.4 To vote in Legislative Assembly elections, electors must now be Australian citizens 18 years of age and over who have been resident in an electoral district for a period of one month or more. The main distinguishing characteristics of the Queensland electoral system are as follows:

- Elections for the unicameral legislature must be held every three years;
- Universal adult suffrage of citizens applies;
- The electoral system is based on single-member districts each of which elects one Member to the Legislative Assembly;
- Enrolment and voting are compulsory. Voting is by secret ballot;
- Optional preferential voting (OPV) was reintroduced as the method of voting in 1992 following 30 years of compulsory preferential voting; and
- The first distribution of boundaries under the Electoral Districts Act 1991, provided for a weightage equivalent to 2% of the area of (5) districts in excess of 100,000 Km².

3. Conduct of Elections

- 3.1 The Electoral Commission Queensland, a statutory authority established by proclamation of the Electoral Act 1992 on 19 June 1992, is the agency responsible for the administration of the State's electoral laws. The Commission replaced the State Electoral Office, a sub-program within the Department of Justice.
- 3.2 The new Commission's mission is to maintain the integrity of Queensland's electoral system. The Commission's goal is to conduct elections and referendums honestly and efficiently; to administer electoral laws impartially; and to promote public understanding, confidence and participation in the electoral system.
- 3.3 The Electoral Commissioner and Deputy Electoral Commissioner are statutory appointees under the Electoral Act 1992, while the remaining twenty three full-time staff of the Commission are employed under the Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988.
- 3.4 The functions and powers of the Electoral Commission are specified under s 8(1) to (4) of the Electoral Act 1992 as follows:

The functions of the Commission are to -

- (a) perform functions that are permitted or required to be performed by or under this Act, other than functions that a specified person or body, or the holder of a specified office, is expressly permitted or required to perform; and
- (b) conduct a review of the appropriateness of the number of electoral districts whenever the Minister requests it, in writing, to conduct such a review, and report to the Minister the results of the review; and

- (c) consider, and report to the Minister on -
 - (i) electoral matters referred to it by the Minister; and
 - (ii) such other electoral matters as it considers appropriate; and
 - (d) promote public awareness of electoral matters by conducting education and information programs and in other ways; and
 - (e) provide information and advice on electoral matters to the Legislative Assembly, the Government, departments and government authorities; and
 - (f) conduct and promote research into electoral matters and other matters that relate to its functions; and
 - (g) publish material on matters that relate to its functions; and
 - (h) perform any other functions that are conferred on it by or under another Act.
- (2) The Commission (the "Queensland Commission") may perform any of its functions under ss (1)(d) to (g) in conjunction with the Australian Electoral Commission.
- (3) The Governor may arrange with the Governor-General for the performance by the Australian Electoral Commission of any functions on behalf of the Queensland Commission.
- (4) The Commission may do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.
- 3.5 In addition to its full-time State Office personnel, the Commission maintains a statewide network of 89 district Returning Officers employed by retainer on a part-time basis to administer routine electoral procedures and manage electoral events locally as they occur (Table 1). An additional 7000 casual employees are engaged to meet the challenge of conducting a large scale electoral episode such as a general election or referendum.
- 3.6 The Commission must conduct an election of a Member(s) of the Legislative Assembly once the Governor (or Speaker) issues a writ under the Electoral Act. The timing and duration of the processes associated with the election are regulated by specific statutory provisions. The timetable established for the 1992 election is shown at Table (2).

4. Voting Methods

- 4.1 Voting methods for the Legislative Assembly have been altered substantially on a number of occasions since the first Queensland Parliament of 26 Members, representing 16 districts was elected in April and May, 1860.
- 4.2 The first ten general elections held between 1860 and 1892 used a first-past-the-post method of voting. Optional preferential voting (OPV) was introduced at the 1893 election and was used at nineteen elections until first-past-the-post voting was reintroduced for the seven elections held between 1942 and 1962. Compulsory preferential voting was the method of election at the ten general elections held between 1962 and 1989.
- 4.3 The reintroduction of optional preferential voting (OPV) was recommended by the Electoral and Administrative Review Commission (EARC) and endorsed by Parliamentary resolution on 11 April 1991, seventy (70) votes to (9). The 1992 election was the first in 50 years conducted under OPV and followed 30 years of compulsory preferential voting in Queensland.
- 4.4 The reintroduction of OPV effectively extends electors' opportunities to exercise the franchise by adding two additional options to the preferential voting system so that a valid vote may be cast by:

- (a) Plumping for one candidate (ie. expressing a single primary preference for one candidate only, leaving all other squares blank);
- or (b) Expressing a partial distribution of preferences (ie. expressing preferences for some but not all candidates on the ballot paper);
- or (c) Expressing a full set of preferences (ie. marking the ballot paper as required under a compulsory preferential voting system).

4.5 Evidence from ballot paper sample surveys conducted by the Electoral Commission following the 1992 election suggests that nearly one quarter of voters (possibly 400,000 voters statewide) chose to cast a single preference for one candidate, some (4%) expressed a partial distribution of preferences, and a substantial majority of electors (73%) exercised the option of voting in accordance with previous practices by indicating a full set of preferences.

4.6 The reduction in the rate of informal voting from 3.0% in 1989 to 2.25% at the 1992 election can be attributed to a number of factors including the relaxation of formality criteria and the simplification of the method of voting following the introduction of OPV.

5. Distribution of Electoral Boundaries

5.1 The 1992 general election was conducted on the electoral district boundaries determined by EARC on 27 November 1991 under the Electoral Districts Act 1991 which became law on 15 April 1991.

5.2 EARC considered the following matters in preparing the distribution as required by s 3.3 of the Act:

- (a) The quota of electors (20,372).
- (b) a margin of allowance whereby the quota may be departed from by not more than one tenth more or one tenth less.
- (c) in respect of a proposed electoral district of at least 100,000 square kilometres in area, the quota may be departed from in that case to an extent greater than one tenth less if the number of electors for that proposed electoral district is such that the sum of -
 - (i) the number of electors; and
 - (ii) a number that expresses the value of two per centum of the area of the proposed electoral district expressed in square kilometres, equals the quota or conforms to the margin of allowance permitted to the Commission.

Subject to these matters EARC considered:

- (a) community of interests within the proposed electoral district - including economic, social and regional interests; and
- (b) means of communication and travel within the proposed electoral district; and
- (c) the physical features of the proposed electoral district;
- (d) demographic trends in the State with a view to ensuring, as far as practicable, on the basis of these trends, that the number of electors enrolled for the time being for the electoral district will remain -
 - (i) in the case of an electoral district of at least 100,000 square kilometres in area, within a margin of at least one tenth more or one tenth less than the number of electors accepted by the Commission for that electoral district in preparing the proposed distribution of the State;
 - (ii) in the case of any other electoral district, within a margin of one tenth more or one tenth less of the average district enrolment; and
- (e) objections and comments on objections to the Commission's proposed electoral distribution under s 3.6.

5.3 EARC's determination distributed the State into 89 single-member electoral districts with a range of enrolments from 18,425 (Hervey Bay) to 22,399 (Mount Coot-tha) and an average district enrolment (after adjustments in five rural districts) of 20,686. The distribution also re-named 31 of the 89 districts.

5.4 Table (3) shows the area of the eighty nine new electoral districts. Districts range in size from 13.55 Km² (Greenslopes) to 343,977 Km² (Gregory).

5.5 Provisions relating to future redistributions have been incorporated in Part 3 of the Electoral Act 1992. Section 36 of the Act specifies the circumstances which will trigger future redistributions as follows:

- If the Act is amended to change the number of electoral districts (s 37); or
- One year elapses after three general elections or 7.5 years elapse following the last redistribution, whichever is the later (s 38); or
- If one third or more of the 89 electoral districts become malapportioned for 2 months in a row (s 39).

6. Qualifications for Enrolment

6.1 Following recommendations from EARC, Queensland entered into a joint electoral roll agreement with the Commonwealth on 4 November, 1991. In addition, the Electoral Act 1992 brought the State's enrolment qualifications in line with the Commonwealth.

6.2 Qualifications for enrolment appear at s 64 of the Electoral Act 1992. A person is entitled to be enrolled to vote at elections for Members of the Queensland Legislative Assembly if the person:

Has attained the age of 18 years and is:

- (a) an Australian Citizen; or
- (b) (other than an Australian Citizen) a British subject whose name was on the 25 January, 1984 on the roll for a federal electoral division; or (for State enrolment only) was entitled to be enrolled on the State electoral roll on 31 December, 1991; and
- (c) lives in the electoral district and has lived in it for the last month (s 64 (1)).

6.3 A person is disqualified from enrolment and from voting if the person:

- by reason of unsound mind is incapable of understanding the nature and significance of enrolment and voting; or
- has been convicted and is under sentence for an offence punishable under the law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory by imprisonment for 5 years or longer; or
- has been convicted of treason or treachery and has not been pardoned.

6.4 A number of special provisions exist for citizens in particular circumstances to enrol to vote including:

6.4.1 Provisional Enrolment

A 17 year old who would qualify for enrolment if 18 years of age can apply for provisional enrolment. The person's name will automatically be entered on a roll for the district for which enrolment is claimed the day that person attains the age of 18 years.

6.4.2 Enrolled Voters Leaving Australia

A person who:

- is enrolled on the electoral roll; and
- intends to cease to reside in Australia but intends to resume residing in Australia within a period of 3 years from that date may apply to be registered as an "overseas voter".

6.4.3 Itinerant Electors

A person who is:

- in Australia; and
- not residing within any district and is therefore not entitled to be enrolled for any district may apply, in writing, to be registered as an "itinerant voter".

6.4.4 Prisoners

If not a disqualified person, the elector is entitled to remain on the roll for the district in which he/ she was enrolled before serving the prison sentence.

6.4.5 Silent Enrolment

Where a person considers that having his/her address shown on the roll would place the personal safety of that person or of members of the person's family at risk, he/she may lodge, with an electoral enrolment form, an application for his/her address not to be entered on the district roll for which enrolment is claimed.

6.4.6 Special Postal Voters

An elector whose real place of living is not within 15 Km, by the nearest practicable route of a polling booth, may apply for enrolment as a special postal voter. Once an election is announced ballot papers are automatically despatched to these electors for voting by post.

- 6.5 Table (4) shows the close of roll figures for the 1992 general election. District enrolments ranged from a low of 15,662 (Warrego) to a high of 24,672 (Townsville). Average district enrolment at the close of roll on Saturday 29 August 1992 was 21,929.

8.2 To qualify for registration under the Act a political party must:

- Have at least one member in the Queensland Legislative Assembly; or
- If not already a Queensland parliamentary party, have a minimum membership of 500 electors.

8.3 Applications for membership must be lodged on the prescribed form, include the party name and preferred abbreviation if any, set out the names and addresses of a registered officer and 500 members (if applicable), and include a copy of the party's constitution.

8.4 The following three political parties registered prior to the 1992 election:

Name	Abbreviation	Date of Registration
Liberal Party of Australia (Queensland Division)	Queensland Liberals	31 July 1992
Australian Labor Party (State of Queensland)	ALP	14 August 1992
National Party of Australia - Queensland	NPA-Q	14 August, 1992

9. Types of Voting
