Postal vote

If you have applied for a postal vote, you must complete it by 6pm Saturday 18 June 2022.

The ECQ must receive your vote back by 6pm on 28 June 2022 for it to count.

Make sure you:

- tear the ballot paper from the declaration envelope
- number every box on the ballot paper in your preferred order
- put your completed ballot paper in the declaration envelope
- seal the declaration envelope and sign it before a witness. Your witness has to sign it too
- put the declaration envelope in the reply-paid envelope and post it back.

Telephone voting

Telephone voting is available if you meet certain criteria.

You must register for this service by 12pm Saturday 18 June 2022 and vote by 6pm that day.

Learn more about telephone voting at: ecq.qld.gov.au/telephonevoting

Remember, voting is compulsory

To make your vote count you must number all the boxes on your ballot paper, in your order of preference, starting with 1.
