

Appointment of an agent for a third party

A third party may appoint an agent. The agent is responsible for the third party's election funding and financial disclosure obligations under the Electoral Act 1992 or the Local Government Electoral Act 2011. Only one agent can be appointed at a time for each election.

The name of a third party's agent will be entered into the ECQ's Register of Agents. Unless otherwise indicated, all information in this form will be published for public inspection on the ECQ's website.

During any period where no agent is appointed for a registered third party organisation, each member of the executive committee of the organisation becomes responsible for the obligations of the agent.

During any period where no agent is appointed for an individual third party, the individual is responsible for the obligations of the agent.

Lodgement timeframe

For a registered third party that is not an individual, an agent must be appointed when the third party is first registered. If the person's appointment as the agent ends, a new agent must be appointed within 28 days.

For a registered third party that is an individual, or an unregistered third party, an agent may be appointed at any time.
