Claim Guidelines

- Invoices for the distribution and/or production of materials and advertising, such as newspaper advertisements, newsletters and pamphlets, must be accompanied by a sample, along with supporting documents
- In connection with an election funding claim, electoral expenditure, by a registered political party for an election, means expenditure incurred by the political party for the purposes of a campaign for the election, whether or not the expenditure is incurred during the election period for the election
- The same expenditure claimed by a registered political party is taken to be expenditure by the registered political party
- Supporting documentation lodged with this return must be clear, legible and unobstructed by other documents
- Tax invoices must have dates, recipient details and a description of goods or services provided
- Purchase orders, order requisitions and account statements will not be accepted as supporting documents
- All pages of the tax invoice must be provided with the claim.
