

Electronically Assisted (Telephone) Voting Notice
QUEENSLAND STATE GENERAL ELECTION
SATURDAY, 31 OCTOBER 2020

The Queensland State general election will be held on Saturday, 31 October 2020. Voting is compulsory.

This notice identifies the classes of electors who, under section 121A of the Electoral Act 1992 and 4AA of the Electoral Regulation 2013, may make an electronically assisted vote (telephone vote) at the 2020 State general election.

This notice also declares, under section 392S of the Electoral Act, additional classes of electors who may make a telephone vote at the 2020 State general election to reduce the risks to health due to COVID-19.

Electors who are eligible to use the telephone voting service for this election:

- electors who cannot vote without assistance due to an impairment or an insufficient level of literacy;
- electors who cannot vote at a polling booth because of an impairment;
- special postal voters who are not detained in lawful custody;
- distance voters whose enrolled address is more than 20km from a polling booth;
- electors who during the election period, are located interstate or overseas;
- electors who, during the election period, are required to quarantine or isolate, for example those diagnosed with COVID-19, because of a direction issued under sections 362B or 362H of the Public Health Act 2005; and
- electors who have undergone a COVID-19 test between Wednesday, 28 October and 12pm (noon) Saturday, 31 October 2020 and have been asked to quarantine or isolate until advised of the outcome of their test result.

For information about registering to use the telephone voting service, please see the ECQ website or phone 1300 881 665.
