

Frequently Asked Questions

Is voting compulsory?

Voting is compulsory for all Australian citizens aged 18 years or older. If you do not vote, you may receive a fine.

Are you enrolled to vote?

Visit aec.gov.au to enrol to vote or to check your details are up-to-date. Adding your email address and mobile phone number means you'll also receive timely information by email and SMS so you don't miss the next election in your area.

Have you changed address?

If you've changed address since the last election, you'll need to update your details on the electoral roll to ensure you are voting in the correct council area. Update your details at aec.gov.au.

What is local government?

Local government is also known as your local council.

Local government or council areas can be cities, towns, shires, or regions and are responsible for managing public property and a range of local services and activities funded by rates, services fees and grants from state and federal governments.

Why do I need to vote in the local government by-election?

Your mayor and councillors represent you in your community. Voting in the by-election means you're having a say about the decision-makers who will shape the local community where you live.

Council services include cultural and sporting facilities, town planning, local roads, waste management, land and coast care programs, pet registration and more.

Why is voting important?

Governments make decisions about services, laws and protections that impact on every part of our lives. By voting, you are part of this decision-making and making a choice about how your community functions.

If you don't vote, you are relying on someone else to choose your representatives for you. One of the best way to make sure you are involved in decisions about your community, is to vote.

Why aren't there any polling places or voting centres open in my community?

The Somerset Regional Council requested a full postal vote for this by-election. This means that all voters will receive their ballot materials in the mail along with a reply-paid envelope in which to return the ballot paper to the ECQ.

Because voters are receiving ballot packs through the post, no polling places or early voting centres will be open. If you have ever placed a mailing address on the electoral roll, your ballot materials will be sent to that address. If you do not receive the ballot materials, please contact the ECQ on 1300 881 665.

How do I complete a postal vote?

Once your postal vote arrives in the mail, complete the following steps:

1. Open and read the instructions on your ballot paper. Detach the ballot paper from the declaration envelope and then complete your vote. You can do this as soon as you receive it in the mail.
2. Then, fold your ballot paper/s in half, place into the declaration envelope and seal it.
3. Sign the declaration envelope where it says You sign here. Have a witness sign where it says Your witness signs here.
4. Put your sealed and signed declaration envelope into the reply-paid envelope.
5. Post the reply-paid envelope as soon as you can.

Remember you MUST vote before 6pm on election day, Saturday 13 September 2025.

Votes must be received by the Electoral Commission of Queensland within 10 days (5pm Tuesday 23 September 2025) after election day to be included in the count. If a vote is received AFTER the deadline, it can't be included. Any late votes are recorded and stored.

The counting of all votes begins after 6pm on election day.

How do I know my vote is secret?

When handling postal ballots, there are steps we take to ensure the secrecy of your vote and the security of your details. Candidates are welcome to appoint scrutineers, including themselves, to watch these processes. When we receive your postal ballot, we start with these steps:

1. We check the envelope has been signed by you and a witness.
2. We mark you off as voting in the election (just like we would at a polling booth).
3. We put the still sealed envelope into a ballot box.

Once the Returning Officer has enough postal ballots, they open the ballot box in front of witnesses or scrutineers.

1. All the sealed envelopes are placed face-down, so we can't see your name and address.
2. The ballot paper is removed from each envelope and placed in a sealed ballot box ready for counting.
3. After 6.00pm on election day, we unseal the ballot box in front of witnesses or scrutineers, unfold the ballot papers and count them.

What if my postal vote doesn't arrive or I lose it?

If something happens to your postal vote before you post it back to the Electoral Commission of Queensland, you can ask us to reprint your ballot paper.
