

Appointment of an agent for a third party

A registered third party that is not an individual MUST appoint an agent for a State election.

A registered third party that is an individual, or an unregistered third party, MAY appoint an agent for a State election.

Only ONE agent can be appointed for a third party.

Where an agent is required to be appointed and one is not appointed or is removed, EACH MEMBER of the executive committee of the third party becomes accountable for the obligations and responsibilities carried out by the agent, until such time as a new agent is appointed.

Where an agent is not required to be appointed, and one is not appointed or is removed, the individual is taken to be their own agent.

Lodgement timeframe

For a registered third party that is not an individual, an agent must be appointed when the third party is first registered. If the person's appointment as the agent ends, a new agent must be appointed within 28 days.

For a registered third party that is an individual, or an unregistered third party, an agent may be appointed at any time.
