Foreword

The thirtieth elections for the Brisbane City Council were held on Saturday, 19 March 2016 for the purpose of electing a Lord Mayor and Councillors for the City of Brisbane.

These elections were conducted under the Local Government Electoral Act 2011 by the Commission's staff, who were assisted by a temporary workforce which included polling officials and 26 Returning Officers (one per Ward).

Planning for the 2016 Brisbane City Council elections was challenging as it shared polling day with 76 other Councils and a State referendum. Similar to Queensland State general elections, Electors were required to mark their Brisbane City Council Mayoral and Councillor ballot papers using Optional Preferential Voting (OPV).

For the first time in Queensland history, no printed certified lists were used. All electors were marked off the Queensland electoral roll using Electronic Certified Lists (ECLs). The barcode on the Voter Information Letter synchronised with ECLs, allowing polling officials to quickly and effortlessly locate electors on the Queensland electoral roll by using the ECL barcode scanner.

Continuing its commitment to making elections more accessible, telephone voting was made available to electors who cannot vote at a polling booth or without assistance because of an impairment or insufficient level of literacy; are special postal voters; or are more than 20km from a polling booth.

Recognising that many electors commute into Brisbane from surrounding council areas, Brisbane City Hall was selected to pilot the "multi-council centre" concept. This provided voting facilities during pre-poll and on polling day, but also serviced electors enrolled in six Councils that surrounded Brisbane City Council. Electors from the following Councils could cast a Mayoral and Councillor vote at the Brisbane City Hall multi-council centre:

- Brisbane City Council;
- Gold Coast City Council;
- Ipswich City Council;
- Logan City Council;
- Moreton Bay Regional Council;
- Redland City Council; and
- Sunshine Coast Regional Council.

All elections were declared on the 5th of April 2016, which would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of Commission staff, Returning Officers and Polling Officials.
