Submission text: I live in Rosslyn and do not support Rockhampton council taking away these suburbs. Yeppoon is a town which is growing and been made to attract tourists. These tourists would travel through Rockhampton to get to Yeppoon bringing spending in both the Rockhampton and Yeppoon areas. The town is becoming a beautiful place to live and to visit. Being so close to Rockhampton a lot of Rockhampton people frequently visit Yeppoon and use the facilities along the beach front. Taking away these suburbs would reduce the income on the Livingstone Shire council. Would increase the rates of people living in the area. Would possibly increase the rents of these families already struggling and would also may lead to the place being less attractive and less inviting and may lead to a drop in tourists which would as mentioned earlier affect business in both Rockhampton and Yeppoon. Why fix what is not broken. Leave it how it is
