It strikes me that Rockhampton has a far bigger ratepayer base than Livingstonshire and thus it seems unbelievably greedy and unethical to attempt to enlarge this base at the expense of an already smaller entity. I dont know exactly how the voting system is to work but surely if all of Rockys population can vote then they will win by sheer weight of numbers! my wife and I are not on the electoral roll, not being Australian cit izens . we have lived in the country for37 years and in Livingstonshire for 25 years. i wonder therefore if we might be able to vote on this issue?
